

Team up with Detroit Opera!

We love the Lions, Tigers and Red Wings as much as any hometown sports fan. But when it comes to entertaining clients or your MVP employees, consider the cultural experiences of opera and dance enjoyed from our box seats at the Detroit Opera House — where every performance is a sure win!

Add the historic Detroit Opera House to your company's existing suite of entertainment options to unlock:

- ❖ Can't-buy opera and dance experiences at the Detroit Opera House
- ❖ Visibility of your brand among our influential and high-net worth demographic
- ❖ A role in Detroit's burgeoning reputation as an epicenter for art and design

** The Herman and Barbara Frankel Donor Lounge is a private entertaining space available only to individuals who make a charitable contribution of $2,500+ annually. The lounge is open two hours prior to a performance, during intermission, and for exclusive post-show receptions with guest artists as scheduled.

*** Valet service is a donor benefit and not available for purchase by the general public.

- Kindly note that packages are applicable to opera productions and dance presentations and do not apply to visiting shows such as Broadway in Detroit.

Make the show on time with a special menu designed to get you to your seat before the curtain rises! Call The Statler to reserve your table and reference "Detroit Opera Pre-Show" to access this offer.

OUR HOME

The historic Detroit Opera House is located in Grand Circus Park

“I would consider my appointment here a success if, after five years, it’s very clear that opera in this city looks, sounds, and feels like no other opera in this country.”

— Yuval Sharon, The Morning Sun, 2020

OUR ARTISTIC LEADERSHIP

Since the 2020 appointment of Yuval Sharon as Detroit Opera’s second-ever Artistic Director, the company has received national recognition for its daring productions and adventurous programming. The recipient of both a MacArthur (“Genius”) Fellowship and a Foundation for Contemporary Arts grant in theatre, Sharon is among the most in-demand names in opera today.

Soprano Christine Goerke was named Associate Artistic Director March 2021, expanding MOT’s artistic footprint and community impact. In 2022, Goerke was named a Chevalier de l’ordre des Arts et des Lettres — awarded for significant contributions to the enrichment of the French cultural inheritance — by the French government.
